Subject: Acquisition and Logistics Reform (A&LR) Week Schedule Change

The decision has been made to reschedule A&LR Week from June 4-8, 2001, to September 10-14, 2001. Rescheduling this event permits time for confirmation of the new acquisition and logistics team, including the Service Secretaries. The A&LR Week is a significant event, and we want the entire team on board and participating.

Your continued dedicated support of this important event is key to our objective to provide better and less expensive products to the warfighter, faster than we have done before.
